

WUTIS

Closing the gap between theory and practice

At WUTIS we are passionate about challenging the way finance is educated in order to close the widening gap between academic finance theory and practice.

We are the first independent student-run investment society to provide a full-blown educational platform for students passionate about finance in Austria to learn more about the financial markets from like-minded individuals, a wide-ranging alumni network and our industry-leading corporate partnership firms.

Our Trading division is currently seeking to recruit:

Trading Analysts (m/f)

Learning outcomes:

- Solid comprehension of global macro-economic landscape & financial market-movers
- Advanced-level research capabilities (broad & in-depth) using industry-grade and less publicly known tools & databases
- Ability to perform market wrap-ups, interpret the noisy news stream & forming outlook opinions
- Chart analysis: Understanding Liquidity
- Comprehensive knowledge of asset classes and trade expression using financial instruments

Other benefits:

- Access to WUTIS-exclusive hard & soft-skill workshops with strong partnership firms looking to recruit interns/analysts from our society member pool
- Alumni network spanning 140+ former members currently working in the industry at Tier-1 Banks, consultancies, hedge funds, private equity & vc funds
- Brand name of WUTIS as a key facilitator to first-round interviews
- Real life work experience & feedback, interview preparation & career guidance from seasoned members with proven track records/industry experience
- Solid understanding of the financial industry, roles, interrelations & career opportunities
- Ability to leverage both, working experience gained at WUTIS and the semester outcome (final pitch document) in your application to firms & in interviews

Requirements/pre-requisites:

- Mandatory attendance of weekly meetups (Thursday evening)
- Currently enrolled at an Austrian university (Bachelor/Master/Doc)
- Strong interest in the financial markets
- Smart, driven & intellectually-curious individual, willing to go “the extra-mile”
- Ability to work efficiently & reliably in teams
- Previous experience in finance & related fields is considered a bonus (not mandatory)

Applications (incl. CV & motivational letter) are to be directed towards HR@wutis.at
